Good Evening Blue Devil Families,

BENCHMARK TESTING

Before Winter Break can begin, Benchmark Testing will finish up this week. Please note – due to testing, Monday is an EVEN day this week. On Thursday, we will not hold ABC in order to extend 5th period for math benchmark testing. Friday is a seven-period day without Advisory. If your student missed any of the benchmarks during the last few weeks, he/she will be asked to make-up the test on Friday.
