

Sundays for Success #15

Monday, January 15, 2018

Good Evening,

This is a special edition of Sundays for Success for Monday, January 15.

SCHEDULE FOR THE WEEK

As of now, there are no schedule changes for the week. Tomorrow is an ODD day as planned.

SCHEDULING

The scheduling highlight for the week focuses on English and Health and PE. All students are required to take four years of English. Juniors and seniors have the option of taking AP English instead of honors or college prep. The English department also offers Journalism and Theatre Arts as elective options for students. Ninth and 10th grade students are required to take Health and PE. The PE department also offers Driver's Education and Advanced PE as elective choices. The details for the electives mentioned today are included in the email portion of this message. Please review them with your student.

LAPTOP PASSWORD EXPIRATION

On January 29th, the 150-day password reset required by HCPS Technology will take place. Student passwords that were not changed since the beginning of school will expire. To prevent instructional disruption, we are asking you to be sure your student resets his/her password before this date. The link below is your "one stop shop" for Password Manager information but your student should also feel free to reach out to our TST, Mr. France, for assistance.
